VIRGINIA JENKINSON

Mrs. H. S. Camp, 298 W. Highland, called our office recently to give us the following bit of poetry on Sierra Madre which she found in the Chicago TRIBUNE under the column "Rimes and Remnants":

Lovely village whose distress
Rated headlines in the press,
With a forest fire and flood
Has a current claim to fame,
She has not a single name
In that widely published list
Of the women Jimmy kissed.

Was your garden damaged in the recent flood? If you would like a little help in re-establishing it, members of the Sierra Madre Garden Club will be happy to help you.

Mrs. Noren Eaton stopped at our office the other day to say that her organization is compiling a list of flowers and plants which can be passed on to those who lost gardens during the rains. She points out that the club is not in competition with commercial nurseries, but wants only to serve as a clearing house through which gardeners with an abundance of plants can place them with those who have real need for them. She'll be glad to hear from you. If you're interested, call Custer 5-0222 or Custer 5-1454 for further information on the varieties available.

Around the Square

By VERNA H. LUMBARD

We haven't gone into the subject extensively but we're willing to bet that a local fountain and grill is waging a losing battle in attempts to tempt coffee-thirsty customers with counter signs that read: "Try tea and seal 5c."

Popular columnist Lee Shippey wrote a piece a while back about the worthiness of chipping in with contributions to local projects and funds. Almost anyone can forego a day at the races or a night out with the boys, he suggested mildly, in order to contribute to the March of Dimes, the Volunteer Firemen's Fund and such. We don't know what Lee "forewent" but he turned over to the NEWS a contribution for the firemen and undoubtedly has contributed to a lot of things even we don't know about.

Just thought we'd broadcast that he practices what he preaches! He'd never tell it himself.

A Chamber of Commerce gets all KINDS of mail. Sometime ago Maggie Ascher, secretary, received a query from S. L. Weir, Los Angeles. Seems the writer has a friend whose mother was an early widow of S'Madre and is desirous of giving a doll she had made to someone who collects dolls and would appreciate it.

Know of anyone?

Were we flattered! Little boy was told on publication day last week that it was too late for the classified ad he wanted to give us . . . paper came out that morning.

He accepted the info. with aplomb, said:
"That's okay. Put it in the afternoon edition."

Business folks in the neighborhood of Dr. Dan D'Arcy's office say they set their watches by the deep-chested woofing of the D'Arcy's outside Great Dome which announces the arrival of Mrs. D'Arcy, the dog and the station wagon to take the doctor home to lunch.

BAKER AT CONCLAVE

City Administrator R. Merritt Baker will attend sessions in Santa Monica today and tomorrow of the City Managers division of the League of California Cities. He will return for a special meeting of the City Council Saturday morning.

COL THURBER IMPROVES

Col. Walter D. Thurber is reported recovering from a serious illness which has hospitalized him for three weeks. He is expected to return tomorrow to his home, 480 Manzanita, from Huntington Memorial hospital.

Death Claims James F. Key, Local Inventor

Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon in Ripple Mortuary for James Francis Key, Sierra Madre resident since 1916, who died Sunday morning, Feb. 21, in a trailer which he and his wife occupied occasionally at Costa Mesa, near Balboa. His residence in Sierra Madre was at 715 Brookside Lane.

The Rev. Donald H. Ostrander of Trinity Presbyterian church conducted the services yesterday. Private committal services and inurnment took place at Live Oak cemetery.

Age 72 at the time of his death, Mr. Key was an inventor of note and held patents on more than a score of items. He developed a can for the American Can Co. and an air pressure gauge such as is used at service stations. He was a veteran of World Wars I and II, retiring in 1943 with the rank of major in the Army Corps of Engineers.

After his retirement from the Army Mr. Key joined the Army Transport Service during the latter part of which period he and Mrs. Key resided in Honolulu, returning to Sierra Madre in 1950.

Mr. Key's birthplace was Washington, D.C., and in 1902 he was graduated from Virginia Polytechnic Institute. He was with the General Electric Co. for a number of years, then served in France in World War I. He was called back to active service in 1940.

He was one of the early members of Pasadena Post 13, American Legion.

He is a descendant of Francis Scott Key, composer of the National anthem.

Mr. Key is survived by his wife, Ina S. Key, and three daughters, Miss Ida Jean Key of Sierra Madre, Mrs. Frances Scott Key Everett of Monrovia and Mrs. Carly Patricia Kirby of Duarte, and by eight grandchildren.

HIESTAND HERE

Congressman Hiestand, who made a flying trip to his district (the 21st) for a speaking engagement and survey of foothill flood area, was a visitor to Sierra Madre on two occasions during his stay.

Sunday he toured Sierra Madre and the canyons with Councilmen Harold Roberts and Charles Louk and Judge John C. Mead. Tuesday he joined Col. Arthur H. Frye Jr., chief engineer Southwest district, U. S. Army Corps of Engineers, for another tour of Sierra Madre flood areas.

CITY SAYS "THANKS"

Mayor Korsemeier expressed the City's appreciation at a council meeting Tuesday, for the outstanding flood control help and cooperation extended by County Supervisor Herbert C. Legg, other supervisors and County Department heads.

He instructed that letters of appreciation be directed to these and all other agencies and individuals who have aided Sierra Madre with flood problems.

A MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION for Sierra Madre became a reality when clergymen met Tuesday for breakfast, elected officers and planned united Good Friday services for April 16. Pictured are Congregational minister, the Rev. Carl Smith, president, seated, and Dr. Robert N. Schaper of Bethany church, secretary-treasurer. Other members are: the Rev. Donald H. Ostrander, Trinity Presbyterian; Rev. Raynor Smith, Church of Our Redeemer, Methodist; the Rev. Edward Kriz, First Baptist; the Rev. Origan G. Burlison, Church of the Nazarene, and Rabbi Charles Steckel, Foothill Jewish Community Center.

It's Wistaria Festival And Queen Time Again!

Annual competition for the selection of queen to reign over Sierra Madre's annual Wistaria fete opens Sunday, Feb. 28, Don Jackson, president of the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce announced today.

Any girl living in the Sierra Madre area is eligible to enter the contest for the festival which during a normal season brings between 30,000 and 35,000 persons to Sierra Madre.

Five girls, as in past years, will be selected as finalists by a board of newspaper and television photographers. They will be named as Wistaria princesses and from among them will be chosen the Wistaria queen for 1954. She will be formally named at the annual press-radio party held under the world famous Wistaria Vine.

All girls interest in entering the contest are asked to go directly to the Wistaria Vine Gardens, 201 W. Carter Ave., at 10 a.m., next Sunday. Photographs of all entrants will be taken at that time. Parents of entrants may accompany their daughters for the tryouts, Mr. Jackson said.

This year's festival which opens March 4, will be under the sponsorship of the Sierra Madre Chamber of Commerce under a plan which will enable the local Chamber to benefit financially from its work.

The plan which was outlined last week by Lorne Pratt, representing the Vine, will give the Chamber all receipts from the event above operating and maintenance costs with the understanding the funds will be used for flood prevention.

Poet Laureate to Talk Here

Friendship Club Announces Norris as Speaker

Gordon W. Norris, poet laureate of the State of California, will be the distinguished guest speaker Monday afternoon at a meeting of the Sierra Madre Community Friendship Club in the City Parkhouse. The meeting, open admission free to the public, is scheduled for 2 p.m. Especially invited are persons over 40 years of age.

Norris is the son of the late Matthew Tyler Norris, who was the first child born in California of English-speaking parents. The elder Norris was born just outside the walls of San Gabriel Mission, his parents having come here by covered wagon in 1848.

The speaker plans to tell the little-known story of Joaquin Murietta, "the Robin Hood of Eldorado," and to recall for his audience the early days of California as his parents and grandparents knew it. After his talk he will read some of the poems from his book, "Golden Empire" which was responsible for his being selected unanimously as Poet Laureate by the State Legislature last June.

A native of Redlands and now a resident of Los Angeles, Norris is the State's fourth Poet Laureate and the first since the death of John Steven McGraw. He is the first member of the Native Sons of the Golden West to win the State honor.

"Golden Emblem" was published in salute to California's centennial years, 1948 through 1950. The State Legislature honored the poet by recessing and he was called three times to the rostrum for bows.

Norris rode on the float, "Golden Emblem" entered in the New Year's Day parade by the Native Sons and Daughters of the Golden West. He gives several hundred talks a year such as he will give Monday afternoon in Sierra Madre.

MAYOR ASKS TO RESIGN ON MARCH 15

Pleading increased business responsibilities and continuing demands on his time as a member of the municipal governing body, Mayor Henry F. Korsemeier tendered his letter of resignation to the City Council at the close of a long session Tuesday night. He asked that it be effective March 15.

The resignation was not then accepted by the body. Action was deferred to the next stated meeting March 9 although an adjourned meeting of the council will be held Saturday at 8:30 a.m.

The mayor said he had reached his decision with reluctance, explaining that he had indicated to the council in December his intention to resign. Before he had formally done so the City faced the watershed fire, then flood emergencies and he was prevailed upon to remain in office at least several months longer.

Korsemeier was elected to the council in April, 1948. He said he "deeply appreciated" the cooperation he had received, "especially from fellow councilmen" and would always value the friendships he had gained while in office.

If the resignation is accepted the council has 30 days in which to appoint a successor.

LORNE PRATT
... candidate

A lifelong resident of Sierra Madre, Lorne Pratt this week announced his candidacy for City Council in the Sierra Madre municipal election April 13.

He was the first to announce that he would file for election. Three posts, now held by Harold F. Roberts, Charles E. Louk and W. Murray Hawkins, are to be filled at the City election.

Pratt's nominating petition was being circulated by Mrs. Marjorie Parker.

The candidate, 31 years old, lives at 677 Canyon Crest in the Marlborough Terrace area.

A former Sierra Madre businessman man, Pratt, during the past several years, has been active in chamber of commerce work and public relations. He was manager of the San Gabriel Chamber of Commerce and at the same time director of San Gabriel's municipal Mission Playhouse. He is now manager of the Hollywood Chamber of Commerce.

Deadline for filing of nomination papers is 12 o'clock noon on Thursday, March 4.

Marie Warfel, City clerk, reports that as of noon yesterday no nominations had been filed. To date no other candidates have been announced other than Pratt's.

MECHANICAL "BRAIN" IN INFANCY, KIWANIANS TOLD

"Despite the amazing development of calculating instruments at the present time, we are still in the Model T stage of such instruments," Kiwanis Club members were told Tuesday by Armand F. DuFresne, staff assistant to the vice-president of the Consolidated Engineering corporation.

"The achievements of the future are almost beyond imagination," he said.

DuFresne told his listeners that problems of calculation involving the most complex mathematics can now be solved by machines which give the answers in typewritten form. Equations which would require years of human effort can be answered by machines in a comparative few minutes, he stated.

He also showed a film depicting modern measuring devices, one of which was so sensitive that if a glass of helium had lost half its contents during the past 6000 years it would still be possible to measure, in a relatively short time, the amount of leakage.

The Rev. Raynor Smith gave a short but inspiring message in connection with Brotherhood Week, outlining briefly the individual's responsibilities and rewards for recognizing the brotherhood of all men, regardless of race or creed.

Two Altadenans, George Shirk and Harold Ihry, were Kiwanis luncheon guests.

Supervisors Clear Way for Dam Sites

Flood control measures for the Sierra Madre foothill section had first consideration at the County Board of Supervisors meeting Tuesday morning. The resulting appropriation of $80,000 to the Flood Control District for dam site acquisition and maintenance cleared the way for the U. S. Forest Service's expenditure of $175,000, already allocated, for check dams and debris basins in Floral, Lannan and Elkins canyons.

Special Meet Of Council Set For Saturday

To Vote on Water Bond, Retirement Measures; Zone Advisors Hired

The City Council will hold an adjourned meeting at 8:30 a.m., Saturday, to consider matters which will affect the taxpayer's pocketbook.

Presented at that time by the Los Angeles law firm of O'Melveny and Meyers will be a resolution and ordinance covering a bond issue in the amount of $110,000 for improvements to the water system. Also considered will be a resolution and ordinance covering an increase in the tax rate up to 20 cents to provide payment for a City employees' retirement plan.

Both, if adopted, will be presented to the voters as propositions in the April 13 municipal election.

Hire Zone Consultants

The Council Tuesday night authorized a $3000 fee to be paid to the firm of Gordon Whitnall and Associates, zone consultants, for modernization of the Sierra Madre land use pattern and preparation of an ordinance, the necessary study to be completed within six to nine months.

Councilman C. E. Louk, council representative on the Planning Commission said this would be "highly desirable if the City can afford it" and predicted that it would help to establish values all over town. Mayor Korsemeier pointed out that the Planning Commission has been studying for almost a year a zoning revision and that professional help was required.

Seek Antenna Franchise

The City attorney also is instructed to draw up an ordinance franchising operation of a Master TV Antenna system in Sierra Madre.

Specifications for a 2½-ton truck for the street department and for a 22-inch well, an automatic chlorinator and automatic signal equipment for the water department were approved.

Tax Talks Set For Lions Meet Tonight

"Tax Problems" will be discussed by Robert Buttane and Arthur Erickson, Lions Club members who are accountants, when they speak at the Lions Club dinner-meeting at 7:15 tonight in the Woman's club-house.

At the dinner-meeting the following Thursday, March 4, the three local sixth graders whose essays were judged outstanding in the annual Lions-sponsored contest, will be on hand to read their 50-word papers on "What the Constitution Means to Me." Their teachers also will be present. A winner will be chosen from the three youngsters representing the City Elementary school and St. Rita's and Ascension parochial schools.

Site Acquisition by the City appeared insurmountable last week with a price of some $48,000 set on the Goya Nursery property in Floral canyon alone. Maintenance of the facilities also represented a burden to the town. As a result of the supervisors' resolution Tuesday, maintenance will be assumed by the County Flood Control District.

Check Dam Nears Completion

While Forest Service engineers awaited the unraveling of red tape, they have proceeded with the small, 2500 cubic yard capacity check dam far back in Floral canyon above nurseryman Paul Goya's home. This is about 80 per cent completed, forest supervisor William V. Mendenhall reported earlier this week. Engineers also have improved and paved, as a flood channel, the dedicated road to the dam which terminates in Wilcox Road.

Pending written permission from the Richard Thayers, owners of the Wistaria Vine, related and expedient plans call for recontouring and paving of the Vine parking area to serve to some extent as a silting and spreading basin and check of water velocity. Mendenhall says the discharge of water from that area will be deflected toward Lima St., alleviating flood damage to residents in the natural wash below Carter Ave.

Debris Basin Possible

Possibility of a debris basin on a little over an acre of the Goya property remains open, Mendenhall says.

Construction of a 50,000 cubic yard capacity debris basin in Lannan canyon, included in the Forest Service allocation, came nearer reality Tuesday night after Mrs. James L. Duff, one of and representing Lannan heirs, and C. H. Burns, subdivider, who holds an option on the property, had conferred with Planning Commission members and the City Council Tuesday night.

Mrs. Duff long has sought from the Planning Commission a zone change of the property from R1-Large for smaller-lot subdivision purposes. After concessions on both sides, the matter will go to the Planning Commission tonight. The subdivider, in the interests of the flood control problem, has agreed to accept 85-foot frontage lots with a minimum area per lot of 11,000 square feet although he had sought 80-foot frontages.

City Council Approves

The City Council unanimously voiced approval of the last-minute compromise agreement, upholding the Planning Commission, and suggested that hearings be started immediately preparatory to an ordinance creating the new zone.

Work on the debris basin can be instituted as soon as the Lannan heirs and the subdivider have notified the Forest Service and Flood Control District of their approval.

Mendenhall says no agreement has been reached as yet with the City of Arcadia regarding flood control measures in Elkins canyon.

Supervisor Herbert C. Legg introduced the motion Tuesday

Letters to the Editor

Dear Editor:

Sierra Madre is unique. We have lived in various parts of the United States, Mexico and Central America, but never have we found a spot to compare with our little town.

The recent disasters only served to confirm this belief and strengthen our resolve to remain here for the rest of our lives. The dauntless courage, gallant determination and delightful sense of humor exhibited by Sierra Madreans in the face of misfortune could not help but be an inspiration to those who heard about it.

We came here with misfortune hard on our heels. Sierra Madre welcomed us and applied salve to our wounds. From all quarters help was proffered with a smile and good will. Then the fire and flood threatened us. Again, the good neighbor policy went into gear in our behalf.

Everyone here is wonderful but we would especially like to single out for recognition Mrs. Pauline Stamer, whose kindness and generosity we shall not soon forget.

Sincerely,
Mrs. Elena G. Tracy.

WHAT I THINK, MR. SHIPPEY

It is a privilege to be able to live in Sierra Madre—one of the finest small cities in the United States. I have realized this more keenly since a recent accident, when I needed special medical and hospital services.

We have right here in Sierra Madre all the fine services any citizen may need, and we do not have to go outside the city limits for help or supplies of any kind, and I'll tell you why.

Recently I was knocked down by a car in Pasadena. Before I could get my bearings, I was loaded into an ambulance with two policemen issuing orders to hurry to the Huntington hospital. I wanted to be taken to our new Medical Center in Sierra Madre and told them so, but "nothing doing"—I was rolled along in the city ambulance and met there by a bevy of pretty nurses and a handsome interne. After some gentle pokes and squeezing the stretcher rolled on to the x-ray rooms, and when I started rolling again, I insisted on knowing WHERE we were headed for, and was told to register or "check in" to the hospital. That was when I got mad and told them "Nothing doing, I'm going home."

So, we finally got started again (this time in a private ambulance) and as we came up here in the twilight, the fire-scarred mountains looked very beautiful and I was thankful to be getting home.

At our Medical Center nurses and doctor were waiting and after a quick glance at the x-rays I had brought along, we were rolling through town to our local hospital and I was quickly lifted into a nice soft bed, and that hectic day was drawing to a close. A tray soon appeared with a light, delicious supper, and I was getting back to a "peace with the world" attitude.

My short stay at the local hospital was pleasant in every way and the service was perfect.

We can purchase right here in Sierra Madre the finest clothing for men, women and children, good shoes, fine furniture, the best of hardware, good food in several groceries, good restaurants, dry cleaning establishments, a nice pet shop, filling stations, auto sales agencies, a movie house, many nice churches, and, Oh, yes, a jail—rather forlorn and lonely at the moment. So, what more do you want?

If you ever get in a jam outside our city limits, insist on being brought home and you will be well taken care of, even if they put you in our "Hoos Gows."

"A word to the wise is sufficient."

V. Miller.

Members of the Volunteer Fire Department and I would like to take this means of saying "thank you" to the many individuals and neighborhood groups who have been so warm in their praise and expression of appreciation for our efforts in fighting the mountain forest fire during the winter.

Many have made cash contributions to the department, a total of $588 alone coming from the Marlborough Terr. and Sierra Madre Canyon residents. Both this letter and a decision as how to best use this money have been delayed until the department had a popular meeting.

The men now have come to the conclusion that it could be used to advantage by renewing some of the furniture and floor covering for the headquarters above the fire station. A paint job has even been considered. The rooms above the station are regarded as a "second home" to most of us and on regular drill and meeting nights the quarters are hardly large enough to accommodate a full attendance in comfort.

It gives us all a pleasant feeling to use the rooms when they appear that they've had attention. Not too long ago Francis Eakman enhanced the rooms' appearance with some new Expect 50,000 at Iowa Picnic Saturday in L.A.

The annual picnic of the Iowa Ass'n of Southern California will take place in Lincoln Park, Los Angeles, on Saturday, Feb. 27, weather permitting. Speakers at the affair, which annually attracts 50,000 persons, will be Jack Bailey, a native Iowan now honorary mayor of Hollywood, and Col. Richard F. Lynch, director of the Los Angeles Civil Defense and Disaster corps.

The picnic will get underway at 10 a.m. Entertainment will be furnished by the Sheriff's Boys Band through arrangements with Sheriff Eugene Biscalluz.

If weather is inclement the picnic will be postponed one week and held on Saturday, March 6.

seats which he bought with money he collected in donations from merchants in town. And now with these welcome donations from the good people of Sierra Madre, especially the Terrace and Canyon residents, we will be able to do something toward matching the rooms to the seats.

We want to express, through this letter, our joy in knowing that we are so well thought of. The people who worked so hard (and did a lot of hill climbing) to make the collections are especially to be commended. I wish that names could be mentioned but I'm sure if I attempted that someone would inadvertently be omitted.

Our decision to use the money for something more permanent than a party was unanimous. We occasionally have a rousing party but have been able to support these ourselves.

The department has gained encouragement and a new spirit as a result of these gifts of money and kind words and we want to say "Thanks again" and we MEAN thanks.

Jim Heasley, Chief
Volunteer Fire Dept.

Lee Shippey asks

What Do You Think?

Lorne Pratt came up with a swell idea when he offered sponsorship of the Wistaria Fete to the Chamber of Commerce, all proceeds above certain expenses to go to the city's own problems of flood prevention. Such a plan could make it rate as truly a non-profit enterprise for the city's benefit to which press and radio would give generous publicity, and Loren is smart enough to get it for us. Doubtless the Chamber could enlist volunteer ticket sellers and parking and what not to hold the expenses down to a minimum, and everyone should be enthusiastic for a project to benefit the whole town. Of course, I haven't investigated the expense side and don't know if the parking area and other private properties would have to be improved or repaired, but on its best the idea seems to me to be the best we have had in years. And I assume that Mr. Thayer will be public spirited in estimating our own legitimate expenses.

Wouldn't it be nice if the Garden club, or some patriotic citizen acting through the club, would offer a prize or distinguished award of some kind to the property owner whose property showed the greatest improvement in care and neatness between now and the Wistaria Fete? It is all the places between now and the Wistaria vine visitors pass on the way to and from the vine which really impresses them the self-respect of our city. Fortunately, the endless procession of cars doesn't come past my house, so I can continue being slipshod and careless, but there should not be one yard along the streets through which our visitors stream which will not give some evidence of self-respect and civic pride. I can't afford to paint my house, either, but I will try to keep the yard clean and fairly neat and the walks swept. How about you?

Last word: All the lipstick in the world won't make you look as good in the eyes of your neighbor, as a lawn so neat it adds respectability to the block.

Belgians, French Fear Armed Germany; Mrs. Pittinger Writes

(As she summed up her impressions of Germany before leaving Brussels, Belgium, Virginia (Mrs. Lincoln A.) Pittinger of Sierra Madre, wrote the following addenda to her previous letters. The Pittingers are traveling again in Europe after several months in Brussels while "Pitt" fulfilled engineering commitments. They expect to return home here in the spring.—Ed. Note.)

Here in Brussels an elderly man sat down beside me on a park bench one day. He had apparently been watching Risty's dexterity with his new two-wheeled bike, and asked me how old he was. From Risty the conversation moved to France, to England and to America until finally the gentleman said fiercely, "We like America here, and England and France—but, les Boches,"—he shook his fist wordlessly under my nose, then added in a whisper, "We hate them—hate them!"

And there have been slogans chalked in the streets protesting the re-arming of Germany. Communists? Maybe, but the Belgians and French are all afraid of an armed Germany—though, on the strength of what we've seen of war destruction, England should be more frightened than either.

I've met a girl here, too—a German girl who married an American officer after the war. She is a big, attractive girl, very blonde, with even white teeth, a flawless complexion, an open, friendly manner—and I can't like her!

She is too loud and she is always trying to TELL me—about American schools, about bringing up children, about organizing one's work. If only she would tell me about Germany and the war! But she has refused to discuss the matter to any extent because it is too disturbing for her.

She did admit, however, that the Germans didn't really believe that Poland was about to attack them in 1939, and that they love a uniform and martial music so much that the Salvation Army is one of the most popular organizations in Germany today because it is one of the few permitted uniforms and parades! And she added that the Allies have made a mistake in trying to teach Germany democracy because the only thing a German understands is absolute authority and unquestioning obedience!

Of the concentration camps she knew nothing, nor of the Jewish persecution. No one did. No one!

But they DO know now—and Dachau is still Dachau.

Successful is the man who can get plenty of money without letting money get him.

FIRE FLAMES

If we can ever get over the thoughts of food,—we hope we may get back to warning people of the danger of fire. It was an embarrassing moment for the writer (between the two storms) to be the victim of an un-called for "Razzberry." Anxious men and women at the end of Lima Street took it upon themselves to barricade the street. This was to prevent "sight-seers" from annoying them as they worked. All well and good until the traffic became surprisingly heavy and blocked the street. There was not even room for another car to pass in either direction. Naturally this was quite a situation for the one car patrol of our police department. I was "It."

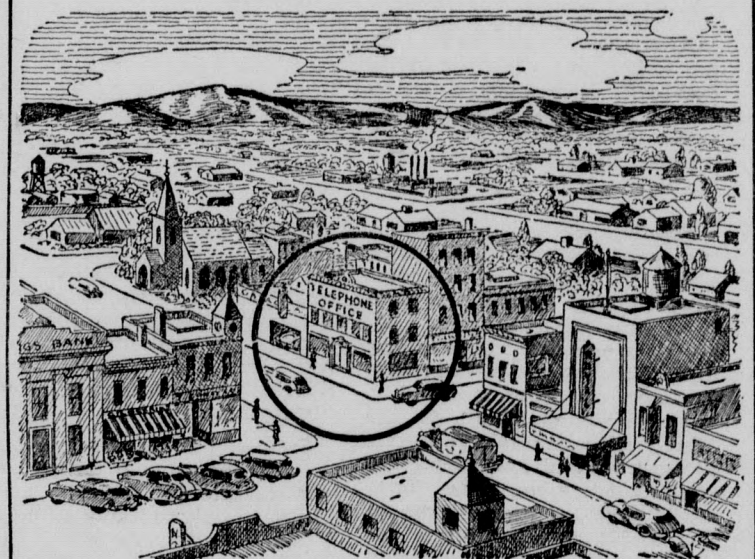

The barricades had to be removed in order to remove the cars, and if those who enjoyed the sounds of their hoots and yells,—really had a good time, it was well worth the while. A fire in that vicinity while those cars were there would have necessitated dragging hose a long distance by hand and perhaps the delay would cause considerable more damage.

Sometimes it is rather difficult to take it. There's a story of two cops. One was straddle the wall of the Colorado Street bridge when the other came along. "Don't jump!" he yelled. "That doesn't solve anything." "I can't go on this way, life is so awful," moaned the other. "Well, we can at least talk the thing over," said the first.

This column will persistently mention the danger of fire and after the recent mountain fire and the one Monrovia has just experienced,—it seems that we are well within the proper channel. There are places of business here that if once a fire got a good start,—there would be great danger of it spreading to other buildings. Some of our older structures are not well protected by having modern firewalls around them. It is a very wise thing for the merchants to check up on their stockpiles and see if there is room for firemen and equipment to get around.

Let the Want Ads find a job.

THE TELEPHONE STORY CHAPTER I

The Telephone Business Is A Community Affair

The Telephone Story is one of the great American sagas—"a story of heroic deeds." But it is a story which will probably never be finished since the advance of telephony is likely never to stop. In this series of advertisements we will tell you something about this vital business which spreads like a colossal network over the earth. Hundreds of thousands of men and women are associated with it and an immense amount of money, the savings of the American public, is invested in it. It is a huge industry.

But in spite of the fact that this telephone business is such an enormous world-wide enterprise, it is essentially a community affair. The telephone office here is the center of communication for this area, it is the place where the talk of the town is routed from one person to another, wherever he might be, according to the caller's directions. Our job is to tailor the system to fit the needs of the people who live here. Our engineers, construction men, linemen, installers, trouble shooters, operators, commercial people, accountants, and other specialists are dedicated to the idea that good telephone service can be provided only through careful planning and constant personal attention by everyone concerned. In the chapters to follow we will tell you what must be done by these specialists to tailor a telephone system to fit the peculiar needs of a particular community.

William E. Roskam of Burbank was selected as the Democratic candidate for Congress in this district by the District Council at a meeting in Burbank Sunday afternoon. Newell Barrett, Kurt Mueller, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Lathe and David Aronson of Sierra Madre, took an active part in the proceedings. After Andrews withdrew, the vote for Roskam was almost unanimous.

Mr. Roskam got his A.B. degree on a scholarship from the University of Redlands and his master's degree on another scholarship from the University of Iowa. He taught in Lake Forest college but served in the Navy in World War II, entering the insurance business in 1946. Vibration in the speedometer pointer is not natural. It usually is a sign of a loose union, a weakened connection, or lack of lubrication. The repair of any of these should be left to an expert, for speedometers are delicate mechanisms.

Report on Heart Disease

ROY. O. GILBERT, M.D.
Los Angeles County
Health Officer

Diseases of the heart and blood vessels are responsible for about one-half of all the deaths in the United States and it is estimated that somewhere in the neighborhood of 10,000,000 people have some form of heart disease. As in so many things, this is not as bad as it first appears since many cases may be cured, prevented, or lived with in reasonable comfort.

Although it may occur at any age, heart disease is more often fatal after the age of 45; indeed, after the relatively young age of 40 it is listed as the leading cause of death.

More people are dying of heart disease today because a greater number of them are living much longer. Coronary heart disease, the result of hardening and narrowing of the arteries of the heart, would occur in every individual if he but lived long enough.

Some heart trouble is unavoidable. A small proportion of children (the estimated number is 3.23 in every 1000 live births) are born with defective hearts, a condition that is called congenital heart disease. This condition is not inherited and the causes are, as yet, unknown.

Other forms of heart disease are the results of some form of streptococcal infection. Rheumatic fever, for instance, accounts for about 90 per cent of the heart trouble in children and is responsible for approximately one-third of the cases of heart disease in adults.

Hypertensive heart disease, caused by sustained high blood pressure, is also a disorder that seems to develop later in life. The origin of the disorder remains unknown but, in the majority of cases, the disease can be controlled. This is a fortunate thing since from 50 to 60 per cent of the American population will probably develop an elevated blood pressure as they ease into middle age.

Although much remains to be done, treatment for heart disease is rapidly becoming more effective. Many types of congenital malformations and heart wounds, formerly thought hopeless, may now be repaired and the individuals enabled to pursue normal activities.

Drugs are also used successfully in the prevention and cure of many cases of heart disease. Penicillin is effective in combating streptococcal infections and the danger of rheumatic heart disease is considerably lessened. Other and newer drugs are used to good advantage in treating hypertension and arteriosclerosis. Needless to say, none should ever be used unless prescribed by a physician.

In all cases of heart trouble, it is important to work and live within one's limitation and not place too great a strain upon the heart. Heart specialists advise work that is suitable but warn against the dangers of strenuous exercise, becoming over-tired, or hurrying. Excitement and anger are equally bad and should be avoided.

Overweight in people with heart disease is particularly dangerous for, in persons over 40, each excess pound adds to the strain on the heart and blood vessels. The proper foods in the right amounts can make the heart patient feel better, look better, and may add years to his life.

Physical examinations are more than ever important as the human machine begins to slow down. Such an examination by the family doctor, followed up with improved living habits, is the best insurance for avoiding disabling heart disease.

Leaflets on heart disease will be mailed to anyone who sends a card of request to the Los Angeles County Health Department, 241 N. Figueroa St., Los Angeles 12.

Congressman Edgar W. Hiestand
REPORTS THE WASHINGTON NEWS

FEDERAL AID

Government handouts are abhorrent to most patriotic Americans. But when towns and communities are threatened with disaster from floods pouring mud and boulders off of Federal lands, the Angeles National Forest, and when thru no fault of their own, the peoples of these communities are threatened far beyond their ability to cope, your Congressman has felt it his duty to go to bat.

I appeared before the House Appropriations Committee, together with Col. H. E. Hedger, chief of the County Flood Control District and Congressmen Hillings, Hinshaw, Holt, Lipscomb, McDonough and Jackson, in behalf of the needs of the County Flood Control District and its long-range projects. Especially, however, Col. Hedger and I appeared in behalf of the threatened communities of Sierra Madre, Monrovia and Arcadia. I had some large maps, beautiful pictures and photostatic copies of the newspapers depicting the 1934 and 1938 floods in other nearby areas.

Eastern Congressmen, unless they have actually seen what could happen in our area, have small conception of those disasters, and it was necessary to show from current newspapers actually what was happening with the relatively small rainfall we have had, as well as what could happen.

COMMITTEE HEARS ENGINEERS

Next day, the Senate Appropriations Committee had the presentation at the time the Corps of Engineers was making its recommendation. They had estimated a million dollars to be needed to completing the Sawpit Wash east of Monrovia and a Monrovia debris basin, in addition to $700,000 for new debris basins at the base of three canyons above Sierra Madre, Floral, Auburn and Carter canyons, together with some improvements at Lannan Canyon. These were provided for in my bill submitted at the opening of this session of Congress. Bailey Canyon debris basin is functioning. While this will not do the whole job in the event of a heavy rainfall, the engineers pretty well agree that it will do by far the greater part of the job in the more dangerous spots. The Committees were most appreciative of the fact that we in Los Angeles County are matching the recommended $8,500,000 with about $8,400,000 of tax money this year, for the entire county budget.

Also included were completion funds all along the foothills, including the item for the Burbank Western installation, a very much-needed improvement. As above mentioned, the threat comes from floods from Federally owned lands, over which the foothill communities have no control. It is logically a responsibility of the Federal government. The whole basic plan has been authorized by Congress as far back as 1937 and subsequent acts, but this was our bid for the actual appropriations of funds for the fiscal year beginning July 1st. I intend to continue to press for its approval, not only by the Committee but by the House. The more Congressmen I can get into my office, showing the large pictures and diagrams (one of them reaching to the moulding of this high-collared office) the more effective can the selling job be.

With BOB BROGGER
The only Sierra Madre team out for high school baseball at PCC, Laury Cavalier, is now first string shortstop.

The reason being that Bob Manoukian is ineligible because of b.g. It's a good break for Laury, and you can bet your bottom nickel that he's going to make the best of it. You're going to hear a lot about him from now on.

Some people resented what we said about the Bethany basketball team. Most of you thought we were serious. Well, it was just a little joke. Sorry if we offended anyone.

Well, the Crusaders played their last home game last Friday night against Chapman college, and won 120-49. Their last game of the season will be Saturday night at Whittier College. After that who knows what will happen. (I'm referring to the playoffs and the NAIA tournament.)

The Sporting News reports

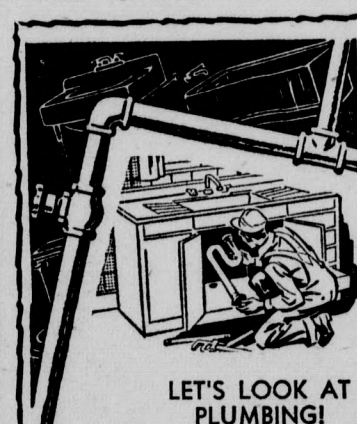

GOP TO ENDORSE CANDIDATES FEB. 25

V. John Krehbiel, chairman of the Republican Central Committee of Los Angeles County, announced today that a decision regarding endorsement of official Republican candidates will be the chief business of the regular meeting of the committee which will be held at 7:30 tonight, Feb. 25, in the California room, Mezzanine floor of the Alexandria hotel, Los Angeles.

Mr. Krehbiel announced that this would be the basic meeting for the critical 1954 primary campaigns to elect a Republican Congress to back the Eisenhower legislative program and to keep California in the Republican column with the election of Republican candidates to State and legislative offices at the June 8 primary.

that Ted Williams has finally given his thoughts of retirement.

Ted stated: "If I have to sit on the bench, then to heck with it. I'll quit." As long as Ted can play regularly, he'll remain in baseball.

Sierra Madre Civic Club Members Plan Benefit Spring Fashion Show March 26

How to make the Sierra Madre Women's clubhouse look like New York's Fifth Ave. at Easter Parade time? That's the problem facing Sierra Madre Civic Club members as they plan their benefit fashion show and dessert set for Friday evening, Mar. 26, at 7:45 p.m. Ideas were flying thick and fast recently at the Cartwright Ave. home of Mrs. William Morse where several members met under her guidance to design zany hats to complement (?) the models' attractive dresses.

Madcap milliners who put in their opinions on how to Goth-ize the Women's clubhouse included Mrs. Gale Boulton, decorations chairman and Mrs. Lee Jordan, show director. They were assisted by Mrs. Charles Morgan, Mrs. James Bryce Tyler, Mrs. Andrew Hedblom, Mrs. Herman Ohs, Mrs. Benjamin McGee and Mrs. Morse.

Co-sponsored by Carrousel of Pasadena and Don Jackson's Store for Men in Sierra Madre, the show will give a preview of spring fashions for both men and women. Mrs. Wayne Stinnett, finance chairman, reports that with the aid of local merchants and members' husbands' expenses are being kept at a minimum so that all money taken in will go towards the show's goal—purchase of an Armstrong reader for iron lung patients at Rancho Los Amigos.

Woman's Club Plans Annual Style Show

Members of the Sierra Madre Woman's club are looking forward to their annual Spring Fashion Show, Wednesday, Mar. 17, at 1 p.m. in the clubhouse.

Mrs. George G. Hannaford, general chairman for the affair, has announced that the spring fashions, to be shown after refreshments have been served, will feature half sizes and ensembles suitable for the "problem figure."

Assisting Mrs. Hannaford are Mrs. Sylvia Colbert, Mrs. Russell W. Darlington, Mrs. Vern Eppard, Mrs. William E. Heller, Mrs. Al L. Pruitt, Mrs. Henry Wade, Mrs. Dee W. Nourse, Mrs. Franklin Franco, Mrs. Leo Meyer, Mrs. Marion W. Austin, Mrs. Archie G. Bonn, Mrs. Ora Olsen, Mrs. Fred L. Williams, Mrs. Dewey McGeary, Mrs. Wilbur Hull, and Mrs. William A. Rhodes.

Reservations may be made by calling Mrs. Pruitt, CU. 5-2915, or Mrs. Darlington, DO. 7-1393.

Mrs. Kenneth Carlson Honored at Shower

Mrs. Kenneth Carlson was guest of honor at a baby shower given in the home of Mrs. P. D. Kline, 249 Ramona. Co-hostesses for the affair were Mrs. Ray Price, Mrs. Jack Dunning, Mrs. Robert Barnes, and Mrs. Harold Clardy.

Among those arriving with their pink and blue packages were Mrs. Hugo Annas, Mrs. Robert Benson, Mrs. Leslie Chapman, Mrs. Franklin Franco, Mrs. John Golden, Mrs. William Hippenstiel, Mrs. Robert Ingram, Mrs. Frank Lukas, Mrs. Roy Pickett, Mrs. Carl Smith, Mrs. Melburn Stine, Mrs. Ingmar Oleson, Mrs. Seth Van Winkle, Mrs. Robert L. Lone, Mrs. James MacGowan, Mrs. Kenneth Taylor, Mrs. Tom Flenniken, Mrs. Simon Nemerson, Mrs. Martin Nemerson, Mrs. Frank Marsh, Mrs. Robert Summers, Mrs. James Gentry, Mrs. Edward Wadrick, and Mrs. Robert McKesson.

Also Bessie Hibbs, Clara Hickok, Olive O'Bryne, Betty Carver and Zelda Nemerson.

Faith Lutheran Church to Observe Anniversary Sunday

Next Sunday the members of Faith Lutheran Church, 835 Hastings Ranch Drive, will observe the congregation's second anniversary. The 10:30 service has been designated as a service of thanksgiving and consecration. A group of adults will be received into membership. The anniversary offering has been appointed for the organ fund in an effort to liquidate the remaining balance on the new Hammond organ purchased last month.

At 6 p.m. the anniversary dinner will be served in the parish hall, for which reservations were concluded yesterday (Wednesday). Serving as members of the anniversary committee are the Messrs. R. H. Swanson and Carl Barz, Mrs. L. Swanson and Miss Ruth Herzberg. Paul Kaponya will be in charge of the fellowship program which follows the dinner. He announces that the Rev. A. Kuntz of Alhambra will present the inspirational message at the close of the program.

"We have traveled a long way since the congregation received its organizational charter two years ago this month," stated the local pastor, Rev. A. Hesse. "Our aim, however, is not merely to look back, but to set our sights on the future, and to endeavor to be of greater spiritual service to the people of this community."

"CHRIST JESUS" CHRISTIAN SCIENCE SUNDAY THEME

The Master's example, demonstrating man's God-given dominion and power over sin, disease, and the grave, will be presented in the Sunday lesson-lesson on "Christ Jesus" in all Christian Science churches.

"Unto us a child is born, unto us a son is given: and the government shall be upon his shoulder," reads the Golden Text from Isaiah (9:6).

Matthew relates (28:18-20) that Jesus, following his resurrection, appeared to his disciples and declared, "All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: Teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world."

In "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" Mary Baker Eddy says, "Christ illustrates that blending with God, his divine Principle, which gives man dominion over all the earth." Again she counsels, "His consummate example was for the salvation of us all, but only through doing the works which he did and taught others to do." (pp. 316, 51.)

Sermonette

"THE GOAD OF DESTINY"
By Roy Smith, Minister,
Church of Our Redeemer
Methodist

The spiritual implications of the Christian gospel are relatively easy to accept. The social implications of our gospel, however, are hard words to hear. The goad of destiny, though, is faith in action. Especially is our divine destiny prodding us with the goad of brotherhood. Every Christian is under the dual compulsion to love God and man. This is not easy, but it is essential and if we are to fulfill our high calling in the crisis of our times we must answer to three imperatives.

First, we must remove our prejudices. Prejudices are real and race prejudice is probably the most dangerous foe of Western civilization. Prejudices are also un-Christian for it corrupts our faith in the Fatherhood of God and narrows our horizon in the brotherhood of men. The late Franklin D. Roosevelt was right when he said, "... the mere conquest of our enemies is not enough... if civilization is to survive we must cultivate the science of human relationships."

Second, we must practice liking people. We may wish there were no responsibilities in this area but we are under divine command to "love thy neighbor as thyself." The way of understanding will help here. To place oneself in the position of another will make liking that person much easier. The way of attention will also help. What gets our attention gets us and it helps if we concentrate on the good in others. The way of love is, of course, best. This is the way Jesus advocated as the sure way to success in liking people. Liking people is the essential step in removing prejudice from our mind.

Third, we must keep close to Christ. Stanley Jones says, "When the world is at its worst, the Christian must be at his best." This means we must think with our mind instead of our emotions. We cannot do this with mere will power, but "all things are possible through Christ." He is the secret of victory in brotherly living. Christ enables us to see beyond the color line to the heart of a man. Christ empowers us for secure living without barriers of prejudice. As the Lord of life, Christ is the assurance of salvation for every man. In Christ all men are "sons of God, through faith."

Bethany Society to Hear Two Missionary Speakers

The regular monthly meeting of the Bethany Missionary society will be held all day Tuesday, March 2, in the church and Mrs. Ray Clark, missionary to South America for 28 years, will be the morning speaker.

The day-long program will get underway at 10:45 a.m. and ma of which her husband is director. The Institute is denominational and is a united effort of various Christian evangelical bodies operating in Peru.

A covered dish luncheon will be served at noon. Hugh Bell, graduate of Columbia Bible college and former pastor of Leesville church in South Carolina, will give the devotional message. Mr. Bell and his wife are now Sierra Madre residents.

The afternoon speaker will be Harvey Phelps of the National Bible Christian Union. Mr. and Mrs. Phelps have served in Austria before and during World War II. They are making a speaking tour of churches during their seven-month stay in the United States and plan to return to France in May.

Special music will be offered during morning and afternoon sessions. A nursery for small children and babies will be provided so mothers may attend the various sessions.

The society invites the public to attend.

"The Lord is at hand. In nothing be anxious; but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God."—Phil. 4:5, 6.

MRS. RAY CLARK

Mrs. Clark will speak at 11. She has served in the jungles of Peru among the mountain Indians of that land and more recently has been active in the Peruvian Bible Institute in Lima.

Congressman Hiestand Speaks at Luncheon

Plans were made for the $100 a plate centennial dinner scheduled for Thursday, April 22 at the Shrine Exposition Hall.

"GAIN THE STRENGTH DERIVED FROM WORSHIP"

Why it's an "I"

Ford's 115-h.p. I-block SIX has a modern deep-block design which gives the engine an "I" shape... and gives you smoother, quieter performance... longer engine life.

The deep-block design of this new Ford Six plus Ford's new 4-bearing crankshaft means smooth, quiet operation... long engine life. This modern Six also has Overhead-Valve design and High-Turbulence combustion chambers. These advances plus Ford's short-stroke, low-friction design and Automatic Power Pilot allow 14% greater power... and you can enjoy Ford's high-compression "GO" on even less gas than with last year's gas-saving Ford Six. But if you prefer a V-8 to a Six, remember that in the '54 Ford you can have the all-new, 130-h.p. Overhead-Valve Y-block V-8... the most modern "eight" in the industry.

Frank Lanterman Announces Candidacy for Re-election

Assemblyman Frank Lanterman, representing the 48th Assembly District, yesterday announced his candidacy for re-election. He will file on both Republican and Democratic tickets.

Mr. Lanterman is serving his second term in the California Legislature and represents that area which includes the cities of Monrovia and Sierra Madre; portions of the cities of Glendale, Pasadena, and Arcadia; and the unincorporated foothill communities of Altadena, La Canada and La Crescenta. He was reelected on both tickets in 1952.

Mr. Lanterman is chairman of the Assembly Committee on Social Welfare, and is a member of the Assembly Committees on "Ways and Means," "Finance and Insurance" and "Municipal and County Government." As chairman of the Assembly Interim Committee on Social Welfare, he has been requested by Governor Goodwin

Knight, for the first time in the history of the legislature, to make a special study of the problem of the care and support of the nonpsychotic senile. This comprises a large and increasing group of elderly people who were formerly committed to state mental hospitals—a practice which the Governor considers inhumane and improper.

Mr. Lanterman states:—"I have decided my privilege of office to the cause of dignity and economy in government that the people of California shall be served by men of honor, moderation and goodwill. When people are willing to give of themselves we can expect to achieve the noble standards provided for us by the founding fathers in the magnificent architecture of our constitutional government. I call upon each citizen of this fine district to extend to me their understanding and support in fulfilling my responsibilities to state government."

According to Thomas Schwartz, Mr. Lanterman has been unanimously endorsed for reelection by: the Los Angeles County Central Committee and the Republican organizations of the 48th District, as well as Womens Clubs and other Civic organizations.

Garden Club Members Offer Surplus Plants

Sierra Madre Garden club members are offering their surplus small plants and bulbs to anyone whose plantings were damaged by recent water or mud. "The plan is to have a clearing house through which those with a surplus and those who need plants can get together," said President Murray Owen.

"Mrs. Noren Eaton is compiling a list of plants available from Garden club members and will welcome calls from any Sierra Madreans wishing replacements for their gardens. This is in no way intended to be competition with our local nurseries."

Mrs. Eaton already has received offers of the following for distribution: pink amaryllis, lilac, privet, violets, calla lilies, Pittosporum Fobira, aralia, acanthus, ganzia, various succulents. She anticipates many more. Interested gardeners please call her at CU. 5-0222 or CU. 5-1454.

H. A. SHUGERTS VISIT IN SIERRA MADRE

Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Shugert, 360 Ramona, and their children, Susan, Bob and Tim, recently entertained Mrs. Shugert's parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Shugert of Oxford, Ohio. The senior Shugerts are spending the winter in La Jolla and came to Sierra Madre for a weekend.

Jan. Building Almost Double That of Same Month Year Ago

Building permits issued in January by Building Inspector William R. Lees covered construction valued at $104,550, which is almost triple that of the previous month and almost double that of January, 1953. Permits covered nine dwelling units, including five, valued at $9,000 each, on the new Gale Hersey tract on Fairview Ave. Also upping the figure is a dwelling to be constructed by the British Home here.

Construction in January, 1953, was valued at $57,785, including six units totaling $43,750. Permits were issued last month as follows: Henry Hoeman, 315 N. Adams, alterations to dwelling, $1000; Frank Zauri, 205 N. Sunnyside, alterations, $150; Kim Spaulding, 619½ Woodland Dr., alterations, $1000; British Home of California, Ltd., 666 W. Washington Document On View at Huntington

In honor of the first President, George Washington, whose birthday was celebrated this week, the Henry E. Huntington library and art gallery in San Marino has on exhibit all this week a rare vellum document of 1793 bearing the signatures of George Washington and Thomas Jefferson.

GARDEN NOTEBOOK

FLOWERING PEACH TREES

The warm colors of flowering peach trees are a welcome and cheerful sight every spring. These hardy trees produce blooms in ever-increasing abundance each year, highlighting backyards and pavement areas from late March through April with bright rose, pink, deep-red, cerise and maroon blossoms.

The flowering peaches are readily adaptable to every part of California and have been widely planted by home gardeners and park departments throughout the state. While flowering peaches produce satisfactory results in a variety of soils, ideally they prefer a moist well-drained rich loam, fertilized with manure or balanced commercial fertilizer.

Fruit Unsatisfactory

The flowering variety, like the parent fruiting peach, ranges in height from six to 15 feet, its textured trunk spreading gracefully. Actually these flowering trees do produce fruit, but it is generally unsatisfactory, and they are coveted primarily for their magnificent production of spring blooms and the handsome tree structures that they provide all year round.

Flowering peaches, like most deciduous trees, can be obtained in bareroot form in most California nurseries for immediate planting. Give them plenty of room and prune them heavily after their flowering period. Don't hesitate to bring huge sprays indoors for early decoration, for cutting does not affect next year's production.

Flowering peaches may be planted with harmonizing trees and shrubs which bloom progressively later in the season or they can be combined with white-flowering spring blooming deciduous shrubs and annuals.

The California Association of Nurserymen advises gardeners to spray flowering trees just before their leaves begin to appear in the spring and later in the fall. A spray composed of lime and sulphur or a Bordo mixture has proven successful in guarding against leaf curl.

MISS FINER THINGS

In life, too much is often sacrificed to the elation of success, too many signally fail to see that there is such a thing as losing a life in trying to gain it, that in the chase for supremacy or wealth the finer things are often missed. And you know, and I know, and we all know, that men are overworked and under-educated, and that there is a certain culture which modern education cannot supply.—Chas. J. Finger

The Answers to Everyday Insurance Problems*
By HARRY A. LANGE

QUESTION: Is a Residence Theft insurance policy still in force when a burglar gains entry to the house with a key left under the door mat instead of breaking in?

ANSWER: Yes, the policy still covers the theft but we'd recommend that you make the thief's entry just a little more difficult. Don't leave keys around where thieves can find them.

MRS. CONZELMAN VISITING NURSE BOARD MEMBER

Mrs. John Conzelman of Sierra Madre is a new member elected to the board of the Visiting Nurse Ass'n of Pasadena. She replaces Mrs. Foster Buckner, another local woman who has been serving on the board.

Officers and board members were elected yesterday at the association's annual meeting in the Pasadena home of Mrs. Stuart O'Melveny. Mrs. John C. Wilson Jr. of Pasadena was elected president.

Mrs. Helen Woodworth, director of the nursing service which also serves Sierra Madre and is a member of the local Community Fund, reported that 19,356 visits were made by the staff of registered nurses to 1673 patients in Pasadena and the San Gabriel Valley in 1953.

The visiting nurse is available to all families in need of such services and the non-profit charge of $3.25 per visit may be modified to fit the family budget.

Dr. Peterson Attends Medical Conclave in LA

Dr. M. H. A. Peterson, 417 E. Montecito, has been attending sessions this week and through today of the California Medical Evangelists convention at the Biltmore hotel, Los Angeles.

Last weekend Dr. and Mrs. Peterson traveled to Napa Valley for a visit with their twin son and daughter, Robert and Marion, who are sophomore students at the Seventh Day Adventist Pacific Union college. Mrs. Peterson attended a mother-daughter banquet with Miss Peterson.

Efforts are being made to secure a number of top personalities from the entertainment and sports world to appear on stage at the diamond party.

Joe E. Brown, national president of the Pony League, conferred with local loop officials last week regarding the party and the approaching summer schedule. At that time, he said, "If humanly possible, I will be at the party on March 6."

Boys eligible to compete in Pony League (13 and 14 years of age) and residing in the following communities are cordially invited to attend the film festivities: Pasadena, Altadena, La Canada, Sierra Madre and Temple City.

Persons interested in forming a team in Sierra Madre can get additional information by calling David Rodgers at SYcamore 4-8919.

CHURCHWOMEN IN PRAYER

had been printed and distributed, churchwomen everywhere were shocked to hear that Miss Chakko had died in January while playing basketball on the campus with her colleagues. She was 49 years of age.

Women in this vicinity heard her address a capacity audience in 1950 in the Pasadena First Methodist church and were stirred by her enthusiasm for the emancipation, then coming, of the women of India.

SUPERVISORS CLEAR WAY

authorizing the Flood Control right of ways and maintain the canyon debris basins.

Knight, Legg Praised

Councilman Charles E. Louk represented Sierra Madre's mayor at the supervisors' meeting. Also attending were Councilman W. Murray Hawkins and City Administrator R. Merritt Black of Sierra Madre, Congressman Edgar W. Hiestand and Assemblyman Frank Lantmann.

While the appropriation introduces an entirely new policy, according to Legg's field deputy, Hugh Dynes, it was based on an extenuating circumstance.

Lantmann told Councilman Louk Tuesday that Governor Knight should be credited with "pulling the plug" which accomplished declaration of the flood disaster area, that the cooperation of Supervisor Legg and the entire county "team" and intelligent presentation of its needs by Sierra Madre account for these satisfactory developments in flood control.

Kenneth Bush Honored On Fourteenth Birthday

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth M. Bush, 633 W. Sierra Madre Blvd., honored their son, Kenneth ("Smoke"), on his fourteenth birthday with a dinner party for some of his friends.

Among those enjoying the dinner and then attending the Valentine dance were Linda Nehls, Joyce Davies, Judith O'Neill, Dee Dee Dammeyer, Lynn Mack, Clifford Moffett, Phillip Yaskin, Buddy Green and Bob Willis.

Correct your faults by observing those found in others.

William Buckley, author-philosopher, in Calif.—"The doctrine of academic freedom has become an emotional symbol."

Paul W. Cases Honor Alex Blacks at Dinner

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Case, 1065 Singing Wood Dr., Arcadia, entertained at dinner Saturday night for Mr. and Mrs. Alexander Black of Altadena who are moving soon to the San Francisco area, where Mr. Black has been transferred by the American Can Co.

The Blacks are former Sierra Madre residents and Mr. Black served on the City Council at one time.

Attending the dinner in their honor were Mr. and Mrs. Stewart Burt, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Suttner, Mr. and Mrs. George Osborn, Mr. and Mrs. Edward R. Oliver, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Orf and Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. James.

Joalene Lacey Has Valentine Birthday

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph E. Lacey, 533 W. Montecito, recently honored their daughter, Joalene on her ninth birthday.

Valentine colors and motifs were used in the floral and table decorations.

Those taking part in the afternoon of fun and games were Penny Paschall, Judy Taylor, Mary Ann Feichtman, Daryl Lee Pangborn, Luane Morgan, Kathie Suttner, Nancy Whitson, Kathie Reece, the guest of honor's brother, Ricky, and one of his friends, Frankie Hudson.

George Glass, Hollywood film producer—"What Hollywood really needs is a great big wide idea on a narrow screen."

Paul Grassl Family Marks 1st Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Grassl and daughter Joanne celebrated the first anniversary of their arrival in Sierra Madre from Alexandria, Egypt, Feb. 20.

Since coming to Sierra Madre the Grassls have been making their home with an aunt, Miss Marie Mercedes Grassl, 257 San Gabriel Ct., a resident of our city for the past 34 years.

It was through Miss Grassl's initiative and efforts that the visitors were allowed to come to the United States to make their home and take out their citizenship papers.

Joanne is a junior at Pasadena City college majoring in International Relations.
